Items of note...website redo was paid in full and also realized that there are fees associated with the Pay Pal transaction for online membership payments. It was suggested to pass on the fees to the members as a convenience fee. Finance committee will investigate best way to implement that for future payments.

Motion was made by Becky Edwards and Tim Roth to approve (amend) the treasurer's report. The treasurer's report was approved by the board.

Committee Reports:

Membership: Tracy Banning reported that the online payments was set up and working and all renewal invoices have been sent at this time Also data sheets were sent to all members so they could update their profile information as needed.

Special Events: Tracy Eichhorn reported the plans for Home for the Holidays which will be December 7 and 8 in conjunction with the City of Ashland Annual Parade and Tree Lighting. All the activities (besides the parade) have been moved to the Ashland City Park. The plan is to have hot chocolate and cookies available Friday night during the tree lighting and then Santa and Mrs. Claus will be at the YMCA activity room to receive the children. Donuts, fruit, hot chocolate and fruit will be served. Holiday themed coloring books will be given to the children visiting the Claus'. A budget amount of $350.00 was requested from the board. Motion was made by Jason Reynolds and Tim Roth and approved by the board.

In addition to the money needed, the following equipment is also needed, tables, chairs, insulated drink coolers and a rocking chair for Mrs. Claus. Everything but the coolers will be provided by the senior center. Tracy B is checking with The Copper Kettle for the insulated coolers.

And volunteers are needed for Friday night at the park, helping to decorate the activity room and help Saturday morning at the Y.

Ambassadors: Chelsea Wren reported that Trail Boss still needs a ribbon cutting, just a matter of timing and that also will she will reach out to Columbia Eye Consultants and 35th on Main.

SBEDC: Ann Colgrove had no updates

Website/Newsletter: Jason Reynolds reported that there was 3.25 hours in October. Also the SSL certificate was purchased and that the site is being backed up on a regular basis.

Stacy is looking for submissions for the Spotlight Focus. If anyone is interested to email Jason.

Budget/Finance: Eric Barmann reported that the budget will be presented next month. Some highlights are the expense are almost identical to last year, income was up due to the increase in dues as well as the income from the Leadership Breakfast.
